

WHY WORKMATTERS INSTITUTE?

God's purpose for your work far surpasses making a living. The arc of the gospel presents a God who invites ordinary people into His project of redeeming and renewing all things. As you entered the workforce this invitation to transform culture was extended to you.

Workmatters Institute is a 3-month faith and leadership development program coupled with a 12-month mentorship program that equips leaders from all industries to integrate their faith and work. It is 100% spiritual development and 100% professional development.

“ This brings clarity to the purpose of work, and the professional and personal development is mind-boggling. You can never approach work the same.

“

I had been searching for a long time how to contextualize what work is in the big picture, in the context of my faith journey. WMI gave me the opportunity to dive deep on that question, and to have accountability and support with the other participants.
