

WORKMATTERS INSTITUTE

The 2022 Workmatters Institute is a 12-month transformational faith and leadership development experience open to young professionals.

1ST LT JOHN BOYETT MEMORIAL LEADERSHIP SCHOLARSHIP

Full Tuition Scholarship

This is an endowed merit scholarship given in memory of 1st LT John Boyett. John was killed along with 240 other servicemen in a terrorist attack in Beirut, Lebanon on Oct 23, 1983.

His wife Theresa remembers him as, “A man of high integrity and high character. Had he lived, I can see that he would have been a great young leader in the business community and I even thought about how he would have been the kind of person to attend the Workmatters Institute.”

The intent of this scholarship is to fund an outstanding candidate in each Workmatters Institute class. The recipient not only embodies the values of 1st LT John Boyett, but also is passionate about living into Christ’s redemptive and transformative purposes in the marketplace.

THE EASLEY FAMILY SCHOLARSHIP

Full Tuition Scholarship

This scholarship has been made possible by the generosity of Jeff & Laura Easley. It will be awarded to a participant in each session of the Workmatters Institute.

Applicants must exhibit leadership ability in their current context and a willingness to take a leadership role within their respective Workmatters Institute cohort. Candidates must have demonstrated a high capacity for leadership, integrity and character. Candidates must be able to consider themselves an ambassador of and for the Workmatters Institute.

THE MOSLEY FAMILY SCHOLARSHIP

Full Tuition Scholarship

This scholarship has been made possible by the generosity of Michael & Ashley Mosley, made available for a Little Rock or Central Arkansas participant.

Applicants must exhibit leadership ability in their current context and a willingness to take a leadership role within their respective Workmatters Institute cohort. Candidates must have demonstrated a high capacity for leadership, integrity and character. Candidates must be able to consider themselves an ambassador of and for the Workmatters Institute.